FAHRENHEIT 451 ESSAY - PEER EDITING

Here are the criteria for the paper:

Organization of points, argument, and analysis - in other words, be organized in your discussion

Analysis and interpretation of the texts - NOT a summary but an analysis, which comes to some conclusions about the material you’ve read

Development of detail with quotes and examples - DETAIL, DETAIL, DETAIL!

Correct mechanics and appropriate MLA format - be careful because spell/grammar check doesn’t catch everything

As you read your partner’s paper, keep in mind these 4 criteria. Make suggestions where your partner might improve, applaud strengths and edit mistakes you notice. Comments can be made above in each section or below and on the back. Be specific! That will be most helpful to the writer.
